1. The Company shall receive the Insured percentage of all sums recovered until the amount of the payment of the Loss and the Company's costs of recovery have been fully reimbursed; and
2. All further sums recovered shall inure to the benefit of the Insured.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Insured shall remain obliged to comply with its duties under the Mitigation of Loss Clause defined under Section 2 (F) throughout the periods outlined in this Recoveries Clause.

When recoveries are realized in a currency other than the Policy Currency, they shall be converted for the purpose of any calculation required after the settlement of a Loss and the rate of exchange shall be the rate as offered by the Central Bank or its equivalent in the Company's country or the rate as offered by such other source as is acceptable to the Company on the date of receipt of cleared funds into the account of the Insured.

Payment to the Insured of a Claim in respect of a Loss falling within the scope of this policy shall constitute a valid release of the Company's obligations in respect of the relevant Claim. The Company shall not be required to make any such payment to any Additional Insured or to any other party other than the Insured irrespective of whether the relevant Loss relates to the Additional Insured or Insured.

Notwithstanding the designation of an Additional Insured under this policy, the Insured remains the entity in possession of relevant information regarding the transactions to which this policy relates and the Insured remains (unless it has advised the Company otherwise and the Company has consented to the same) responsible for all dealings with the Buyer(s) in relation to those transactions.

It is further understood and agreed that the Insured remains bound by all of its obligations under this policy or at law, and failure to comply with any obligation(s) shall attract the remedy or remedies set out in this policy and/or at law, regardless of whether the relevant Claim relates to the Insured or an Additional Insured. In particular, the relevant Additional Insured will not be entitled to contend that the Company cannot exercise a remedy because the relevant breach has been committed by the Insured and not any or all of the Additional Insured(s). Further, coverage for Loss relating to any such Additional Insured(s) will be subject to all of the same terms and conditions of the policy as are applicable to the Insured.

The Company shall not be required to provide any notice to a relevant Additional Insured or any other party other than the Insured.

ENDORSEMENT NO.7

LOSS PAYEE ENDORSEMENT

This endorsement, effective 12:01 A.M DD/MM/YYYY forms a part of Policy No. XX issued to (Insured's Name) by Kiwi General Insurance Limited

This endorsement shall apply specifically to the Insured and the Loss Payee that is designated to be Loss Payee mentioned in the Policy Schedule.

Payment to the Loss Payee in accordance with the provisions of this policy shall constitute a valid release of the Insured's obligations in respect of the relevant Claim.

It is understood that the Loss Payee is not an Insured under this policy and that, save for the specific provisions of this endorsement, the Loss Payee's rights are limited to the right to receive payment in respect of a valid claim under this policy. The Insured remains bound by all of its obligations under this policy and at law, and failure to comply with any obligation(s) shall attract the remedy or remedies set out in this policy and/or at law.

It is hereby understood and agreed that:

1. All limits provided for in this policy shall be joint and not several in their application to the Insured and the Loss Payee, and any other entity nominated as an Additional Insured where applicable and/or Loss Payee.

2. It remains the Insured's obligation to provide the reports set out in Section 2 (B) Premium and Declaration Clause of this policy. If the Insured does not do so then the Company may, at its sole discretion, accept submission of the reports by the Loss Payee, provided that these reports are received within thirty (30) days of the date set out in this policy.

3. Any notice of cancellation of the policy by the Company shall be provided to the Insured at the (Email) address given in the Policy Schedule and to the Loss Payee at the (Email) address given in the Policy.

4. In the event that the Loss Payee is aware of any adverse information as set out in Section 2 (E) Notification of Adverse Information Clause of this policy, then the Loss Payee agrees to notify the Company of such information in accordance with the provisions of such sections. Notification of adverse information by the Loss Payee does not excuse the Insured of any failure to provide the required notification but may, provided the Company's interests have not been prejudiced, constitute satisfaction of the requirements in the Notification of Adverse Information clause of this policy. For the avoidance of doubt any adverse information required by the Notification of Adverse Information Clause must be reported in the event that access to this information has passed to the Loss Payee and is out of the Insured's control. Any remedies available to the Company as a result of failure to provide the required information shall apply equally to a failure by the Insured or Loss Payee.

5. To the extent it is within the Loss Payee's control, the Loss Payee agrees to take relevant steps to mitigate Loss as set out in the section 2 (F) Mitigation of Loss Clause of this policy. For the avoidance of doubt appropriate steps must be taken to mitigate the Loss, and this provision 5. is intended to apply in the event that rights in relation to the debt have passed to the Loss Payee and out of the Insured's control. Any remedies available to the Company as a result of failure to mitigate shall apply equally to a failure to mitigate by the Insured or Loss Payee.

6. To the extent it is within the Loss Payee's control, the Loss Payee agrees to maintain a legally enforceable indebtedness as set out in the Section 2 (G) Legally Enforceable Indebtedness Clause of this policy. For the avoidance of doubt a legally enforceable indebtedness must be maintained in the event that control of legal enforceability has passed to the Loss Payee and is out of the Insured's control. Any remedies available to the Company as a result of failure to maintain a legally enforceable indebtedness shall apply equally to a failure by the Insured or Loss Payee.
7. To the extent that any funds are paid directly by the Buyer to the Loss Payee, the Loss Payee agrees to apply any funds received in accordance with the Section 4(D) Application of Funds Clause of this policy.
8. To the extent that, after the date of payment of a Loss, the Loss Payee receives any payments from the Buyer, or from any other source whatsoever as or towards payment of the Buyer's obligations, the Loss Payee agrees to treat such funds in accordance with the Section 4(I) Recoveries Clause of this policy.
9. To the extent that the Loss Payee holds rights against the Buyer which, were those rights held by the Insured, would pass to the Company by way of subrogation in the event of payment of a Claim, the Loss Payee agrees, at the Company's request, to either: (i) assign those rights to the Company; or (ii) return those rights to the Insured in order to enable the Company to exercise its rights of subrogation. For the avoidance of doubt any rights held against the Buyer will pass to the Company by way of subrogation in the event of payment of a claim, and in the event that such rights have passed to the Loss Payee and out of the Insured's control. Any remedies available to the Company as a result of failure to assign subrogation rights shall apply equally to a failure by the Insured or Loss Payee.

S. No	Assignee (Name & Address)	Effective date

This assignment is limited to cover provided under this Policy and does not cover loan default of Insured.

Payment to the Assignee in accordance with the provisions of this policy shall constitute a valid release of the Insured's obligations in respect of the relevant Claim.

The Insured remains bound by all of its obligations under this policy and at law, and failure to comply with any obligation(s) shall attract the remedy or remedies set out in this policy and/or at law.

It is hereby understood and agreed that:

3. All limits provided for in this policy shall be joint and not several in their application to the Insured and the Assignee, and any other entity nominated as an Additional Insured where applicable and/or Assignee.

2. It remains the Insured's obligation to provide the reports set out in Section 2 (B) Premium and Declaration Clause of this policy. If the Insured does not do so then the Company may, at its sole discretion, accept submission of the reports by the Assignee, provided that these reports are received within thirty (30) days of the date set out in this policy.

3. Any notice of cancellation of the policy by the Company shall be provided to the Insured at the (Email) address given in the Policy Schedule and to the Assignee at the (Email) address given in the Policy.

4. In the event that the Assignee is aware of any adverse information as set out in Section 2 (E) Notification of Adverse Information Clause of this policy, then the Assignee agrees to notify the Company of such information in accordance with the provisions of such sections. Notification of adverse information by the Assignee does not excuse the Insured of any failure to provide the required notification but may, provided the Company's interests have not been prejudiced, constitute satisfaction of the requirements in the Notification of Adverse Information clause of this policy. For the avoidance of doubt any adverse information required by the Notification of Adverse Information Clause must be reported in the event that access to this information has passed to the Assignee and is out of the Insured's control. Any remedies available to the Company as a result of failure to provide the required information shall apply equally to a failure by the Insured or Assignee.

5. To the extent it is within the Assignee's control, the Assignee agrees to take relevant steps to mitigate Loss as set out in the section 2 (F) Mitigation of Loss Clause of this policy. Any remedies available to the Company as a result of failure to mitigate shall apply equally to a failure to mitigate by the Insured or Assignee.
6. To the extent it is within the Assignee control, the Assignee agrees to maintain a legally enforceable indebtedness as set out in the Section 2 (G) Legally Enforceable Indebtedness Clause of this policy. For the avoidance of doubt a legally enforceable indebtedness must be maintained in the event that control of legal enforceability has passed to the Assignee and is out of the Insured's control. Any remedies available to the Company as a result of failure to maintain a legally enforceable indebtedness shall apply equally to a failure by the Insured or Assignee.
7. To the extent that any funds are paid directly by the Buyer to the Assignee, the Assignee agrees to apply any funds received in accordance with the Section 4(D) Application of Funds Clause of this policy.
8. To the extent that, after the date of payment of a Loss, the Assignee receives any payments from the Buyer, or from any other source whatsoever as or towards payment of the Buyer's obligations, the Assignee agrees to treat such funds in accordance with the Section 4(I) Recoveries Clause of this policy.
9. To the extent that the Assignee holds rights against the Buyer which, were those rights held by the Insured, would pass to the Company by way of subrogation in the event of payment of a Claim, the Assignee agrees, at the Company's request, to either: (i) assign those rights to the Company; or (ii) return those rights to the Insured in order to enable the Company to exercise its rights of subrogation. For the avoidance of doubt any rights held against the Buyer will pass to the Company by way of subrogation in the event of payment of a claim, and in the event that such rights have passed to the Assignee and out of the Insured's control. Any remedies available to the Company as a result of failure to assign subrogation rights shall apply equally to a failure by the Insured or Assignee.
